11. Schedule

Teams that fail to schedule or play matches by the designated schedule by or play by date may be subject to fines of $250 per game.

11. Starting the Game

A game shall not be started with fewer than seven (7) eligible and properly uniformed players on each team. If the team has fewer than seven (7) players, the match shall be forfeited to the opponent. If during the match a team is unable to field at least seven (7) players, the opponent shall be declared the winner by forfeit.

12. Field of Play

FIFA designates the preferred dimensions for the field of play and the goals. Goals must be properly anchored and have nets. The fields must be safe and properly marked with lines, corner flags or cones sufficient for the match officials to perform their essential duties. The game referee shall determine the safety and acceptability of the field. Teams found to have inadequate fields may have future home games revoked until fields improved to IYSA standards.

13. Technical Area & Technical Staff

The Technical Area shall be designated for each team and include one (1) yard on either side of the team's designated seating (bench) and up to a distance of one (1) yard from the touchline. The Technical Area is the seating area only for the team's eligible players and Technical Staff listed on the team's Game Roster and State Cup Roster. The Technical Staff is the team's head coach and two (2) assistant coaches (one coach may be replaced by a certified medical person) of the team. All persons in the Technical Area must be listed on the team's Cup Roster and IYSA Member League Roster, have a valid IYSA Member League pass and roster and be eligible to participate. Only the coaches and players listed on the team's Cup Roster are permitted on the players' side of the field. Only the team's Technical Staff listed on the Game Roster are to be in the team's Technical Area/Team Bench. Only the players listed on the team's Game Roster (maximum 18) are to be dressed in uniform. A player that is not listed on the team's Game Roster but is on the team's Cup roster may be in the team's Technical Area/Team Bench but must be dressed in street clothes that are easily distinguishable in color from the team's uniform. Red carded and/or suspended players/coaches (ineligible persons) are not allowed in the viewing area of the field. Any violation of these rules will cause the team to forfeit the State Cup game in which the violation occurred. The team's Technical Staff must remain within the confines of the Technical Area except in special circumstances as permitted by the referee such as entering the field of play to treat an injured player.

Players sitting on the bench or warming are required to wear pinnies until the check-in to the match. Players checking in should wait at the sideline until the player coming off reaches them. Player coming on should give the player coming off their pinnie to wear on the bench.

14. Coaching During Game

No coaching other than conveying of tactical instruction is permitted during the game. Only the designated head coach is authorized to convey tactical instructions from the Technical Area and has the responsibility of making sure that no person associated with the team violates this coaching restriction.

The designated head coach is responsible for the actions of all persons associated with the team. Violations by any person including spectators and supporters associated with the team will be deemed the actions of the designated head coach.

15. After the Game

Following the match, the Winning team's coach/team manager must collect both game cards from the referee and bring them to the onsite IYSA registration area (if applicable) or email, fax or bring to the IYSA office no later than 48-hours after the completion of the match. Failure to do so may result in a $50 fine

After the Championship Match: The champion and finalist teams and their head coach/ assistant coach as designated on the Cup roster must attend the Awards Ceremony immediately following the championship match. Teams and coaches failing to attend the Cup Awards Ceremony will be assessed a fine up to and including $750.

16. Game Officials & Fees

Illinois Youth Soccer shall assign USSF registered referees for all Cup matches. Prior to the game each team shall pay the referee of $80. Teams must give the fees to the game officials prior to start of match.

A team refusing to pay the referees prior to match may be assessed $250 and prohibited from competing further in the US Youth Soccer National Championship or Presidents Cup series in the current and subsequent soccer year.

For Home Team Host Matches: The Home Team must submit a written request to Illinois Youth Soccer by the dedicated "schedule by date" prior to the scheduled match for a referee crew to be assigned. The Home Team is subject to a fine up to and including $500 and a forfeit for failure to properly notify the Visiting Team and IYSA State Cup Referee Assigner.

In the event the IYSA assigned Center Referee fails to appear, one of the assigned linesmen shall function as Center Referee. Where no IYSA assigned match officials appear, the coaches shall agree on a Referee and play the match as scheduled. Should the Center Referee become incapacitated during the match, an IYSA assigned linesman shall assume the duties of the Center Referee. If an IYSA assigned linesman is not present, the coaches shall agree on a Center Referee for the match and the match shall be played to its conclusion.

The duties of the match officials are defined by FIFA. Referees must be able to properly apply the Laws of the Game and the State Cup rules. The match officials shall have the authority to determine the acceptability of the field of play; deal with players or coaches exhibiting violent conduct or threatening, abusive language; and stop the match due to interference from spectators. The Referee shall forward the names of offenders to the Cup Director within twenty-four (24) hours. The Referee shall remain on the field and in charge during the traditional handshake.

17. Unfinished Matches

For matches played short-time due to any cause, it shall be at the discretion of the IYSA Tournament Director as to whether the match is to be replayed, restarted where the match was stopped or a winner declared.

18. Red Card (Send-off/Ejection) Fines

Player's Red Card Fine is $50. Coach's Red Card/Send-off Fine is $150.

The Team's designated Head Coach is responsible for the actions of the team and its supporters.

1. Player Send-Off

A player who is sent-off from any game is prohibited from participating in the next immediately following game played by the player's team. A player may receive more than a one-game suspension.

Players ejected from a match may continue to sit in the technical/bench area unless removed by the referee for inappropriate behavior once they have been sent to the bench. Coaches are responsible for ejected players behavior on the bench, further inappropriate behavior by player may result in coach being sent-off from match.

Players serving a suspension for additional game(s) are permitted to sit on the team bench in street clothes (no uniform) and will be held responsible for their actions the same as any other participant. If an ejected player becomes disruptive from the bench, he/she may receive an additional game(s) suspension.

2. Coach, Manager, Team Official or Supporter Send-Off

Coaches and other team officials shall be subject to all rules pertaining to misconduct contained in this policy, including cautions, ejections, and standard suspension. Any other individuals who may be reasonably construed as being associated with a team, such as relatives and spectators, are also subject to the jurisdiction and authority of Illinois Youth Soccer. Any coach or team official shall be held responsible for the actions of any individual at any game that, in the opinion of the referee, is a supporter of that team.

Coaches and other team officials dismissed must leave the vicinity of the field before the game will be restarted.

A coach who is sent-off from any game is prohibited from participating in the next immediately following game played by the coach's team. A coach may receive more than a one-game suspension. Coaches serving a disciplinary suspension may attend team activities during the suspension as a spectator only. No communication with players or team management is permitted during the suspended game(s). Any violations will result in additional disciplinary action being taken by Illinois Youth Soccer.

If a team has only one coach on the sideline, and that coach is sent-off, that coach's team will forfeit the match 4-0

A Red Card fine shall be assessed against players, coaches/officials or team supporters and neither the offender nor the team shall be allowed to participate further in the National Championship or Presidents Cup series until such fine is paid to the IYSA. Cup Red Card fines are strictly enforced. The club is responsible for unpaid fines incurred by its team coaches, players, officials and supporters.

All players and coaches that receive a red card are required to sit their next Cup match. If player is not automatically crossed off game card, the players should manually be crossed off the game card prior to giving it to the referee for check-in. If a player that owes a red card suspension plays or a coach that owes a red card suspension is on the sidelines, the result of the match will be a forfeit for the offending teams.

Mutually agreed upon, non-played games WILL NOT count towards an owed Cup suspension. The red carded player or coach has to sit out the next Cup game that is played by player/coach's team.

19. Rule Violations

Any person or team that is found guilty of violating IYSA policies, procedures and Cup rules shall be prohibited from competing further in the National Championship or Presidents Cup series in the current and subsequent soccer year, and be subject to additional sanctions including but not limited to forfeiture of all Cup games, fines, and suspensions.
